

GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT (R-1)

The jobs of general superintendent include the performance of selected functions of programs, activities and resources management of at least two of the three following sectors: maintenance, supply, community services.

Fields of activities and specific tasks

- for all the components relating to the fields of activities and specific tasks, we have to refer to the contents of the relevant descriptions in the following three: maintenance superintendent, supply services superintendent, community services superintendent.