

DAY CAMP COUNSELLOR

Nature of work

Under the supervision of the person in charge, the day camp counsellor leads activities planned, organized and structured by the college.

Required qualifications

Schooling

To have a secondary school diploma or a diploma or an attestation of studies which is recognized as equivalent by the competent authority.

Pertinent skills

To have the theoretical and practical knowledge required for certain activities.

Some characteristic duties

The employee in this employment class is in charge of a group of participants.

He takes attendance and ensures that the activities run smoothly by taking part in the activities and by making sure that the safety and discipline regulations are respected.

He sees to the good order of the material and premises where the activities take place.

He helps with the development of the activities and adapts the contents.

He participates in the daily preparation and storage of the material and assists the team members, as needed.

He works with the directing staff and the other day camp counsellors for the carrying out of the activities. If need be, he advises his immediate superior of problems and possible improvements.

If need be, he performs any other related tasks.