

SPORTS AND SWIMMING LEADER

Nature of work

The principal and customary work of the employee in this employment class consists in leading various cultural or sports activities such as leading groups of young children or one or more swimming activities for different groups.

Required qualifications

Schooling

To have a secondary school diploma or a diploma or an attestation of studies which is recognized as equivalent by the competent authority.

Other requirements

To have, when required, an aquatic security and lifesaving instructor certificate issued by the Canadian Red Cross Society or by the Lifesaving Society.

Some characteristic duties

The employee in this employment class chooses and leads various cultural or sports activities based on various themes, such as multi-sports weekends, as an assistant leader, assistant instructor of the Canadian Red Cross Society or assistant instructor of the Lifesaving Society. He leads swimming activities for groups of different levels within recognized programs such as those of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

He takes attendance, ensures the users' safety by, among other things, locking and unlocking doors and reports any problem, accident or anomaly to his superior.

He places the equipment at the disposal of the users and puts it back in storage. He writes various reports.

He may also help another person in the same employment class or assist a sports activity counsellor.

If need be, he performs any other related tasks.